

SOUTH-HOLLAND FACTS & FIGURES IN THE CYBER SECURITY CLUSTER

THE HAGUE

PLACE TO BE FOR CYBER BUSINESSES

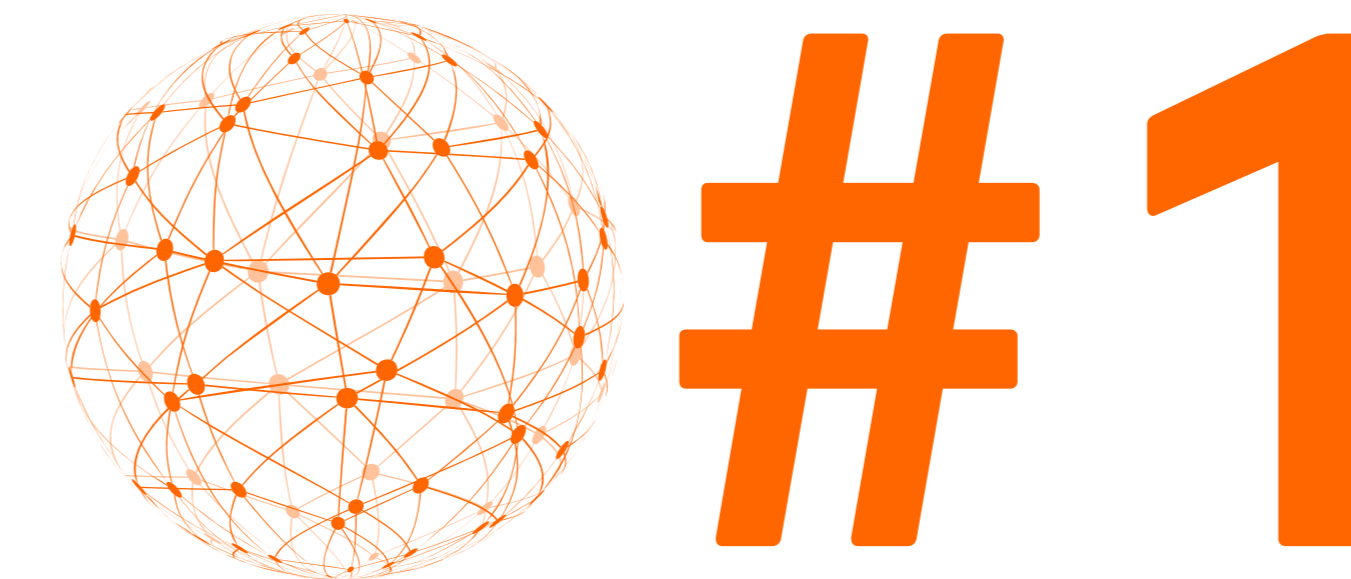

The Hague has established itself as a major hub for cyber security in Europe. This is demonstrated by the presence of the European Cybercrime Centre Europol (EC3), the National Cyber Security Centre, NATO Communications and Information Agency and a wide range of cyber security businesses. The largest in Europe cyber security cluster is also based in The Hague. The core of this cluster is within The Hague Security Delta, a network of businesses, governments and knowledge institutions that work together on innovative security solutions and knowledge development.

The Hague is the cyber capital of the Netherlands. It accounts for a total of 15% of the national turnover

The Hague Security Campus is the national innovation centre for security in The Hague. The HSD Campus is serving as an inspiring place to meet entrepreneurs, students and professionals in the Dutch security cluster. It is for example home to the IoT Forensics Lab of the Leiden University of Applied Sciences and the HSD Office. As an independent organisation, HSD Office accelerates collaboration in the Dutch security cluster, connects businesses, governments and knowledge institutions and facilitate knowledge sharing between them. They provide access to market, knowledge, innovation, talent and capital.
