[greyspace]

the unexpected venue for fresh ideas

Introduction

The Grey Space in the Middle is an anti-disciplinary cultural hub located in The Hague's creative district, designed to bring together art, technology, and philosophy.

Our diverse space showcases exhibitions, dinners, performances, film screenings and club nights that invite encounters between people and ideas. The Grey Space is a safe, inclusive space and with a focus on underrepresented communities, we contribute to a vibrant cultural climate.

Our versatile venue provides unique rental opportunities for organizations seeking an inspiring and unconventional space for a wide variety of events, from corporate workshops, seminars and team-building sessions to art exhibitions, private gatherings, and community-focused programs.
