

Internship at The Hague Business Agency

Job description

Looking for an internship in marketing and communications, where you can learn, apply your knowledge and have fun? You found the right one!

Who we are

The Hague and Partners is an organisation, which promotes the city to tourists, businesses and international organisations. The Hague Business Agency, one of the three Business units at The Hague & Partners, has focus on B2B and attraction of international companies to The Hague. The team has an open internship position for marketing communications to support marketing communications manager in daily activities and projects.

Your job

Your daily job will be focused around these key areas:

- Content creation

From creating and editing video and photo content to taking an interview from our clients and writing articles or case studies, there will be many opportunities to create and contribute to the content creation for our online channels, events and clients.

- Web design

Working with new CSM and CRM systems as well as design basic landing pages will be part of your daily tasks. Trainings for both systems will be provided in the first weeks of your internship.

Your profile

We are looking for an enthusiastic and an online savvy, a natural digital, who is passionate about storytelling and communications. Native or near native level of English is a must. Knowledge and experience in Photoshop/Lightroom as well as in Premiere Pro and/or After Effects or other video editing tools is desirable, but not a must. Knowledge and experience of social media platforms are required. If you are a fast learner with a hands on approach, this internship is for YOU.

Our offer

You will get to work in a creative environment and be exposed to the core business of the team. In return, we will help you develop your skills based on your needs and requirements, allowing your natural talent to shine through.

This role is a paid internship. Candidates will need to be available for 4-5 months, dates and schedule to be discussed.

Does this sound like you? If so, please send over your CV and cover letter to L.fateeva@thehague.com. Applications without a cover letter will not be considered.
